Come move with us!

DANCE FOR PARKINSON'S DISEASE

NEW DETROIT CLASS

Take Root's Dance for Parkinson's Disease program offers a space for those living with Parkinson's and their spouse/caregiver to come move, connect, create and find joy in the connection with others through movement and music.

Art Block
1411 Holden St, Detroit, MI 48208
Starting Tuesday, March 14th 11am-12pm
Session 1: March 14 – May 23, every Tuesday

Free Class
Donations Accepted

Led by Take Root Company Dancer, Tree Muller

Tree Muller has been dancing with Take Root as a professional company member since 2020. She received her B.F.A. from Marygrove College and her M.F.A. in Dance from NYU's Tisch School of the Arts. Tree is Special Lecturer at Oakland University's Dance Department and has been teaching for Take Root's Dance for Parkinson's Disease program for the past year.

"What I noticed was I came to class thinking of all the things I couldn't or wouldn't be able to do, and leave the class in the afternoon thinking this is what I am able to do now!"
– Linda G. Dance for Parkinson's Disease participant.

ART BLOCKS MISSION:
HTTPS://WWW.HENRYFORD.COM/DEVELOPMENT/PRIORITIES/ART-BLOCK
CLASS INFORMATION:
WWW.TAKEROOTDANCE.COM