Support Groups

Whether you're seeking support for loss, caregiving, addiction, depression, anxiety, or a behavioral health issue, attending a support group can be a valuable step toward healing. The list below is not a complete representation of the support groups that might be available to you, but serves as a good starting point when looking for an environment where you can connect with others going through a similar experience.

Support Groups for survivors of suicide, grief and loss

Alliance of Hope

847-868-3313

<https://allianceofhope.org/>

The Alliance of Hope for Suicide Loss Survivors was created by survivors for survivors. As a 501(c)3 charitable nonprofit, we provide online healing support and other services for people who are coping with devastating loss to suicide. Our online forum operates like a 24/7 support group. Our website contains support resources and information on the survivor experience.

Kevin's Song

313-236-7109

<https://kevinssong.org/>

The mission of Kevin's Song is to empower communities to prevent suicide and offer hope and healing to survivors. Kevin's Song is a charitable organization dedicated to generating public awareness about the causes of suicide, its prevalence in our society and possible preventive measures. As an organization, we are creating a working community of professionals and advocates that is rapidly being recognized as an important resource in the metropolitan Detroit area for offering knowledge, hope and healing to individuals, families and communities touched by suicide.

Alcoholics Anonymous (AA)

866-920-0628

<https://www.aa-meetings.com/aa-meeting/>

Trying to give up your alcohol addiction habit? It is not easy to remain sober but yes, if you have people supporting your decision and helping you stay on course to total de-addiction, you can make it. When you decide to kick the habit and remain sober, the name that spontaneously comes to mind is Alcoholics Anonymous (AA). Alcoholics are aware that if they want to achieve their de-addiction goals, AA is the best resource. It is not only the oldest but also the largest support group for those who have decided to give up their alcohol and drugs dependence. Use the AA Meetings locator to know about an AA Meeting happening near you.

Narcotics Anonymous (NA)

800-230-4085

<https://www.na.org/meetingsearch/>

Narcotics Anonymous is a global, community-based organization with a multi-lingual and multicultural membership. Membership is free, and we have no affiliation with any organizations outside of NA including governments, religions, law enforcement groups, or medical and psychiatric associations. Through all of our service efforts and our cooperation with others seeking to help addicts, we strive to reach a day when every addict in the world has an opportunity to experience our message of recovery in their own language and culture.

SMART Recovery

440-951-5357

<https://smartrecovery.org>

Ready to overcome your addiction? Participants tell us that our program is valuable because we stress self-directed action and base our practical tools on cognitive science. If you're choosing to learn how to move beyond an addiction of any kind, we're here to help with free mutual support meetings and resources of all kinds.

Medication-Assisted Recovery Anonymous (MARA)

*Contact numbers can be found under meeting information.

<https://www.mara-international.org/find-a-meeting>

Do you use prescribed medication to treat various drug and alcohol use disorders? Many people who utilize evidence-based science to aid in their recovery sometimes feel uncomfortable in their day to day lives. Additionally, a multitude of people on this healing path have even felt unwelcome at traditional recovery meetings. We understand. At Medication-Assisted Recovery Anonymous (MARA), you're always welcome!

Co-Dependents Anonymous

888-444-2359

<https://coda.org/find-a-meeting/>

Co-Dependents Anonymous is a non-professional fellowship. After finding a meeting from the CoDA Meeting Locator, it is suggested you call the contact person to confirm the meeting date, time, and location. You may have noticed this person is identified by first name, and last initial. This follows the CoDA tradition of anonymity, which says that members are not identified to the world-at-large. They remain anonymous during meetings also, using only first names. Information shared at meetings is not discussed outside the meeting. These safeguards insure that all things shared are held in strict confidence and trust.

Chronic Pain

Chronic Pain Anonymous

888-561-2220

<https://chronicpainanonymous.org/meetings/meeting-calendar/>

<https://www.xpintergroup.org/recurring-events>

Chronic Pain Anonymous (CPA) is a fellowship of people who share their experience, strength, and hope with each other so that they may solve their common problem and help others recover from the disabling effects of chronic pain and chronic illness. The only requirement for membership is a desire to recover from the emotional and spiritual debilitation of chronic pain and chronic illness. There are no dues or fees for CPA membership. We are self-supporting through our own contributions. CPA does not ally with any organization or institution.
