Patient safety and security

The safety and security of our patients, their families, and our team members is our top priority and there are rules in place to make sure our patients are safe.

Team members: All Henry Ford Health team members must wear a name badge with a photo while working. If the person cannot show you their badge, tell a nurse or team member right away.

Patients: You will get a wristband at the start of your stay. You must wear it at all times. Team members will ask for your name and birthdate often. If a member of your care team tries to give you medicine, provide treatment, or take you for more tests without checking your ID or asking for your name and birthdate, please remind them to do so.

Visitors: You are encouraged to check in with the hospital information desk every time you visit. Upon check in, there could be times a visitor badge is given and required to be worn on the outer clothing.

Personal belongings and valuables

Send personal belongings and valuables home if you do not need them while you are at the hospital. Henry Ford Health is not responsible for your personal belongings that are lost at the hospital. Please talk to your healthcare team if you have any questions.

Medical equipment

It may be important to keep some medical items or equipment that are required for your hospital stay with you at the hospital. Some examples are hearing aids, glasses, dentures, and CPAP machines. Henry Ford Health is accountable and responsible for these belongings. Please talk to a member of your healthcare team about what items are medically necessary for your hospital stay and how to keep these items safe. Record of these items must be in your electronic health record.

Fire and disaster drills

Fire and disaster drills are done regularly. If a drill happens while you are here, please stay in your room and stay calm. The door to your room will be closed during a drill. In the case of an actual fire, a team member will tell you what to do.

Cell phones and videotaping

To protect the privacy of our patients, the use of cell phones to record audio or video is not allowed unless medically needed or if permission from the patient, visitor, or team member has been given in advance. Those who do so without permission will be asked to delete the recordings. For privacy, the use of cell phones and audio or video recording is also limited in some areas of the hospital.

Violence

At Henry Ford Health, the safety of patients, team members, visitors, and volunteers is our highest priority. Your health and well-being is best achieved when there is open communication and mutual respect. Threatening language or behavior, physical violence, or disruptions of care from patients, family members, or visitors will not be tolerated. We are committed to maintaining a safe, non-violent environment to provide you with the best care possible. Any action that jeopardizes the safety of our team members or interferes with your care will not be tolerated. Anyone who poses a threat or causes harm will be removed and may face prosecution.

Weapon-free facility

For the safety of everyone:

- Everyone may be subject to a search. This could include all purses, backpacks, and bags regardless of size.
- Firearms are prohibited regardless of a concealed weapons permit or license. This includes all off duty law enforcement personnel of the state, county, city, and/or local municipalities.
- Additional prohibited items include tasers, knives, pepper spray, stun guns, lighters, or any other weapons. If an item is confiscated, it may be disposed of and may not be returned to you.

Room call system

A button to call the nursing station is located at your bedside. When you press the button, the nursing station is alerted, and a light will flash above your doorway.

Someone from your care team will come to your room or call into your room over a speaker to find out what you need.

MyChart

MyChart is a tool that helps you:

- View your upcoming appointments.
- Cancel or schedule an appointment.
- Send your doctor a message.
- View your test results.
- View your current medicine list and renew prescriptions.
- See your billing information.

MyChart bedside

If you have a MyChart account, log in while you are admitted to the hospital to find out more about your stay.

Schedule: This tells you what is coming up next, like which medicines you are taking or what tests you will have.

Care team: This section will tell you who is taking care of you and their role.

During your stay: Find out more about what medicines you are taking, see your test results when they are available, see the current food menus, or sign documents.

Visitor policy

You have the right to accept or deny visitors while in the hospital, if Henry Ford Health's visitor policy is followed. Team members also reserve the right to ask visitors to leave if they are disruptive or behaving in a manner that takes away from the healing environment you deserve. You can check henryford.com for visitor guidelines, or talk to a team member to make sure you know the visiting hours and rules. Failure to follow visitor guidelines can result in visitation restrictions or termination of visitation rights.

To learn more, visit:
henryford.com/visitors/guidelines/expectations.

Smoking, tobacco, marijuana, and vaping use

The use of tobacco, marijuana, or vaping is prohibited in the hospital and on hospital property. This includes tobacco or marijuana in every delivery method.

Where can I use tobacco, marijuana, or vaping products?

- As a patient, you may not leave our campus to use any tobacco, marijuana, or vaping products while you are admitted.
- As a visitor, you must leave hospital property to use tobacco, marijuana, or vaping products.

Staying tobacco, marijuana, and vape-free

If you need help staying smoke-free during your hospital stay, talk with your doctor or nurse about your options.

After your hospital stay, Henry Ford Health has resources to help you stop using tobacco products.

- Call 888.427.7587 (Detroit area) or 517.205.7444 (Jackson area)
- Visit henryford.com/tobaccofree
- Email TobaccoFree@hfhs.org

Prevent infections and hand hygiene

Washing your hands is the most important thing anyone can do to stop the spread of germs, which cause infections. Hand washing can be done with soap and water or using the hand sanitizer found outside of the room. It is important for team members, visitors, and patients to wash their hands. Here are some other things you can do to help:

- If a team member does not wash their hands as they come into your room, please remind them.
- Ask your visitors to wash their hands as they enter the room.
- Wash your hands often.

Other ways to prevent infection:

- Ask your visitors to stay home if they are sick or not feeling well.
- Cover coughs and sneezes with a tissue or the inside of your elbow and wash your hands after.
- Make sure all visitors and team members follow the directions on the signs on your door if you are in an isolation room.

Prevent pressure injuries

A pressure injury is damage to the skin or tissue that can be caused by laying or sitting in a position for too long. Your nurse will check you daily for this.

If you are at risk:

- You will need to change your position often, especially if you are sitting in a chair.
- We will help you change position if you are not able to on your own.
- Always tell your nurse if you have any new pain.

Prevent falls

Falls are the number one reason patients get hurt in the hospital. Many patients find it harder than normal to get out of bed, reach personal items, get dressed, and walk while in the hospital. We want to keep you safe, and we can do this by partnering with you and your loved ones to prevent falls. Throughout your hospital stay you will receive fall prevention information all of the time. Please let a team member know if you have any questions, and talk to them about how you can specifically help prevent falls.

Advance directive

An advance directive is a legal document that allows you to have a say in your healthcare decisions even if you cannot speak for yourself. An advance directive is sometimes called a durable power of attorney for healthcare, designation of patient advocate form, Durable Power of Attorney (DPOA), or power of attorney for healthcare. It lets you name a patient advocate who will make medical decisions about your care and treatment if you are unable to do this for yourself.

- You have the right to choose a patient advocate by completing an advance directive form. This should be someone who knows your wishes and is willing to follow your wishes or make decisions for you if needed.
- An advance directive is not required. You can make your wishes known by talking with your family, your doctor, or by writing them down. However, unless you have an advance directive, a patient advocate does not have legal authority to make healthcare decisions for you.
- Henry Ford Health will honor your advance directive within the limits of Michigan law and the hospital's mission, philosophy, and capability.
- The existence or lack of an advance directive does not determine a patient's right to access care, treatment, or services.

Completing an advance directive

Give a copy of your advance directive to your patient advocate and a member of your healthcare team.

- Your healthcare team will make sure your advance directive is included in your medical record at Henry Ford Health.
- If you make changes to your advance directive, complete a new form and give it to your patient advocate and primary care physician, or a member of your healthcare team if you are in the hospital.
- A sample form can be downloaded by scanning the code or visiting henryford.com/AdvanceDirectives
- If you would like more information about an advance directive, picking a patient advocate, or making changes to a current document, please ask your nurse, case manager, or a patient representative.

Ethics team and consultation

In healthcare, sometimes difficult and complicated questions or choices can come up. These situations may lead to difficult conversations and even disagreements about beliefs and values. Our ethics team is available to support patients, families, caregivers, loved ones, and members of the healthcare team. The ethics team helps everyone work together to find solutions to these difficult situations.

You can request an ethics team consultation by letting anyone on your healthcare team know.

Home health care

Home health care includes a range of health services such as skilled nursing and physical therapy in the comfort of your home. Home health care is designed to support the management of illness, injury, or long term health problems, as well as promote better health and quality of life. A personalized care plan is made for each patient's unique needs.

To be eligible for Medicare-covered home health care, a patient must be considered "homebound," have a doctor or authorized provider determine that skilled care is necessary, and receive care from a Medicare-certified home health agency ensuring high standards.

Palliative care and advance illness management

Palliative care is specialized medical care that focuses on providing relief from the symptoms and stress of a serious or long-term illness. It is provided by a specially trained team of doctors, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses, social workers, and other specialists who work together with your other doctors to provide extra support. Palliative care can be provided at any stage of a serious illness and can be provided along with treatment meant to cure you. The goal is to improve quality of life for you and your family. Talk to your healthcare team if you want to learn more about palliative care.

Discharge planning

Planning for your discharge begins at admission, and you and your family may receive assistance from a case manager or social worker to discuss your discharge plan.

The first 24 hours

If you receive assistance from a case manager or social worker, they will be in touch by phone or in person within 24 hours of your admission to the hospital. If you have not heard from them in 24 hours, let a member of your healthcare team know.

Transition from the hospital

Your case manager or social worker's goal is to help you plan to be discharged home or to another facility for care if necessary.

- Your case manager or social worker may contact you by phone or come see you in person.
- Please let a member of your healthcare team know if you would like to talk to a case manager at any time.

Community referrals and resources

Your case manager or social worker can give you more information about services and support available in your community. Let them know if you have any questions.

Hospice

Hospice provides care at the end of life with a focus on treating symptoms and helping you live every day the best way possible. Hospice includes a team of expert doctors, nurses, social workers, chaplains, home health aides, registered dietitians, and bereavement specialists who work together to provide comprehensive, compassionate, patient-centered care that promotes comfort. Let someone on your healthcare team know if you want to learn more about hospice. A member from the hospice team can meet with you and your family to provide more information.
