WELCOME TO HFHS PRIDE!

WHO ARE WE?

HFHS PRIDE was the first Employee Network group to be established at Henry Ford Health System. In 2010, we were honored by our organization's Diversity Council to become one of the system's newly created Employee Resource Groups, where we receive executive leadership and financial support to continue to move our mission forward.

DIVERSITY AT HENRY FORD HEALTH SYSTEM

Our policy of inclusion reaches far beyond race, color and national origin to include (but not limited to) gender, sexual orientation, age, disabilities, religious and political beliefs, veteran status, size, height, marital status, parental status, income, socioeconomic status, educational background, geographical location and work experience.

OUR DIVERSITY STATEMENT

Henry Ford embraces diversity by valuing the unique ideas, talents, contributions and needs of our people and community. We are committed to continually shaping a diverse work environment that promotes opportunity for personal and professional growth. We hold each member of our team accountable for actively fostering a culture of inclusion in order to enhance the quality of care and comfort for each person that we serve.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF OUR GROUP?

The purpose of our group is to serve as an advocacy group for GLBT employees. We provide support for one another. We are dedicated to fostering an inclusive and diverse culture for our patients, employees, business partners and the communities we serve.

HOW DOES THE GROUP KEEP IN CONTACT AND COMMUNICATE?

We host monthly networking and social events, as well as regularly scheduled meetings that focus on our mission and annual objectives. HFHS Pride maintains an email distribution list to keep members up to date on the latest news and events. If you are either a member of the GLBT community at Henry Ford Health or an employee who supports us, you may contact HFHSPride@hfhs.org to join our email distribution list.
